

Selection of Relevant Current Conservation Projects

Midleton Railway Station

2006 - ongoing

Conservation report and advice on existing railway buildings and Platform, prior to re-opening of railway line to Midleton.

Client: Irish Rail

Ely House, Dublin 2

2006 – ongoing

Conservation Architects for major refurbishment of Georgian townhouse with important interior.

Client: Knights of Columbanus

Ballintotis Tower House

2006 – ongoing

Conservation report and repair specifications for restoration of ruined tower house as dwelling.

Client: Private owner

Rocky Island

2005 – ongoing

Conservation report, advice and research for project to convert 19th century magazine fort to crematorium.

Client: McGee Creedon Architects

Tyndall Institute

2005 – ongoing

Conservation report and advice on re-development of landmark 19th century maltings complex on Lee river.

Client: UCC

Fermoy Courthouse

2005 -ongoing

Conservation report, advice and recording prior to major refurbishment works.

Client: Cork County Council Architects' Office

St. Fachtna's, Roscarbery

2005 - ongoing

Conservation architects for work including roof repair, re-rendering, repair to stone spire, and the conservation of original 5 peel bells.

Client: Parish Council

Castlemartyr House

2003 - ongoing

Conservation Architects for redevelopment of 18th century house as part of hotel and spa complex.

Client : Oracle Developments

Selection of Relevant Recently Completed Conservation Projects

Dingle, Miltown and Castlemayne RPS

2005 – 2006

Update and review of the Recorded of Protected Structures for the above towns.

Client: Kerry County Council

Carker House

2003 - 2006

Historical analysis and research, repair and design drawings for restoration of ruined 18th house for use as private home.

Client: Private owner.

Ditchley House

2004 – 2005

Conservation architects for 18th century house which was incorporated into new Radisson hotel scheme.

Client: Fitzgerald, Mahony and Knox Hotel Group

Lismore Castle

2004 – 2005

Architects of a new gallery within the historic castle building, designed as a deliberately modern space which retains part of the historic structure.

Client: Lismore Estates

Former Cork City Waterworks

2004 – 2005

Architects for the conversion of a complex of 19th century industrial buildings into a museum, science teaching facility for schools and a sustainable lifestyles themed visitor centre with seminar and meeting facilities.

Client: Cork City Council

Winner of Opus Award for Conservation 2005

* Winner of RIAI Architecture Award 2006*

North Tipperary County Survey

2004

Recording and assessment of almost 2000 urban and rural buildings for the National Inventory of Architectural Heritage.

Client: NIAH, Dept. of the Environment

St. John's Church, Kinsale

2002 – 2004

Conservation specifications and supervision of repairs (with Tom O'Sullivan architects) to the interior and exterior of the church, including restoration of the original mid-19th century windows and repair of the stone belfry.

Client: Parish Council

* Winner of RIAI Conservation Award 2005*

Selection of Relevant Recently Completed Conservation Projects

- Our Lady's Hospital, Cork 2001-3
Design, conservation specifications and supervision of conversion of 19th century institutional complex to apartments.
Phases I , II, III
Client: Lance Investments
- Dunmanway Model School, Co. Cork 2001-3
Conservation report and specifications and design of new education centre
(To tender stage)
Client: Department of Education
- Hewitts Mills, Watercourse Rd, Cork 2001-3
The conservation of 19th century mill, part of Hewitts Distillery and conversion to offices
Client: Watercourse Rd Industrial estate Ltd.
- UCC Conservation Plan 2002
The first conservation plan to be drawn up for a third level institution in the state, the plan examines the total campus in terms of its built heritage as well its landscape, archaeology and ecology
client: UCC and Heritage Council
- 50 Pope's Quay 2002
Conservation specifications and supervision of final phase of works to this important 18th century house.
Client :Cork Civic Trust
- St. Coleman's Cathedral, Cloyne 2000
Specification and supervision of major conservation programme to medieval cathedral
Client: Dean and Chapter of Cloyne Cathedral/The Heritage Council
- Carrigbarre House, Cork 2001
Conservation report, specifications and supervision of works to important 18th century house and design and supervision of student housing scheme
Client: Private Developer

Selection of Relevant Recently Completed Conservation Projects

The Digital Hub, Dublin

2002 - 2002

Architectural inventory and conservation recommendations for major educational and commercial development scheme on extensive Dublin site

Client: The Digital Hub

Mercy Hospital, Cork

2001

Conservation report and technical advice on stonework repair to important 18th century former Lord Mayor's Residence

Client: Mercy Hospital

Lee Maltings, Cork

1999

Conservation report and consultation to large educational complex

Client: UCC/NMRC

Dyke Parade, Cork

1999 - 2001

Conservation report, design, specification and supervision of works to early nineteenth century protected structure, involving commercially successful re-use of building as apartments.

Client: Private Developer

St. Vincent's Seminary, Cork

1998 - 2002

Design, specification and supervision of project to convert important nineteenth-century seminary to educational use.

Client: UCC

Kingston College, Mitchelstown

1998 - 1999

Conservation report and specification for major refurbishment of nationally important

18th century almshouses

Client: W.H. Hill & Sons/Cork County Council

Wandesford Quay, Cork

1995 - 2000

Design, specification and supervision of works to re-use nineteenth century industrial buildings as Art Gallery and Artists' Studios

Client: Cork Corporation

Fenn's Quay, Cork

1993 - 1999

Design, specification and supervision of award-winning scheme to conserve important group of early eighteenth-century houses

Client: John F Supple/Michael Cunningham

 Winner of the RIAI Silver Medal for Conservation 2005 **